GUTTENBURG RACE TRACK, Jan. 21 .-The pleasant weather served to bring out a large crowd to Guttenburg this afternoon. The programme was not especially attractive, but it promised fair racing, and so long as there was anything to bet on the crowd

The track was in first-class condition, though a trifle hard.

Hough a trine hard.

Before the races began Col. S. D. Bruce sold at auction a draft of horses, the property of Charles Hughes, James McCormick and others. The first offered was the six year-old brown horse Experience, by Brown Charle, dam Myrolia. He was knocked down to J. Sullivan for $3,050.

The others brought the following prices: Anne Flirabeth, b.f., 5, by Volturno, dam Bennie attie; J. Naughton, 61,700, bess MacDuff, das Bonles MacDuff, db.f., 5, by MacDuff, das Bonles MacDuff, b.f., 6, by MacDuff, dam Bonline MacDuff, 8, 5, 6, by MacDuff, dam Bonline MacDuff, 8, 81,400, Ondaws, b. c., 3, by Oncondaga, dam Keip; eath, $460.

The racing began with a six furiong dash, Clotho looked a moral in the morning, but for some reason she was withdrawn, leaving a sorry lot of nags to contest for the purse.

Marcellus was finally selected to carry the money and went to the post a favorite.

Home flun was second choice, while Leather stocking was third choice.

The talent picked them wrong, for Leather stocking made all the running and won easily. Marcellus could not do better than third, Spartacus, a 15 to 1 chauce, splitting the pair. Leigh, a red-bot favorite in the second race, won the money for the talent very easily. Lake, the outsider, beat Trump, second choice, out for the place.

The talent scored again in the third race, Narka coit galloping in an easy winner by a length and a half from Red Elm in the fast time of 0.55½. This youngster is developing a great turn of speed.

Reporter, at 12 to 1, dropped into third place.

Burned by an Oil Explosion.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 21 .- On the Pennylvania Ratiroad, at Bocklow, the first staion cast of Steelton, this morning, the fast line cast, which leaves here at 11.45, stopped on the block to repair the air brake.

The second section came up and crashed into the rear, demolishing the Williamsport sleeper, in which were four passengers. The car caught fire from the locomotive of the CITY CLERK GOLDNER IS IN, TOO cond section and was partially destroyed. Henry W. Rolfe, Assistant Professor of Kng. ish literature in the University of Pennsylvania, was returning from Williamsbort, where he delivered a lecture last night. He was seriously hurt about the back, but the spital physicians have not yet learned the extent of his injuries.

Arthur A. Stearn, a wholesale jeweller New York, is also at the nospital. He is injured about the hips. Two others were hurt, but not seriously.

Prof. Roife was doubled up between the upper and lower berths and almost suffocated by the escaping steam. Stern climbed through a window, with nothing to protect him from the bitter cold but an undershirt. Clerk's office, which they and no trouble to get possession of. No one was there to oppose them.

The Santord men went through the formality of placing Matthew Goldner, Sanford's City Clerk, in charge.

A large crowd of people had assembled and there was a general expectation that a rew of some kind was imminent. The sanford men predominated in numbers. Those who had been at Sanford's headquarters looked knowing, and curionity as to the past move in the game became intense, Gleason remained out of sight in the Mayor's office.

Sanford Reaches City Hall. Sunford Reaches City Hall.

Mayor Sanford, at the head of a large crowd of his supporters, and excoursed by Chief of Police Wood, appeared at City Hall at 11.15 o'clock. He walked straight to the Mayor's office and entered.

"Good morning, Mr. Gleason," he said.
"Good morning, Mr. Sanford," replied Gleason, and the two shook hands across the rail. Then Mr. Sanford said, slowly and distinctly. Then Mr. Sanford said, slowly and distinctly:
